Weak-reference transition repair: identical magnitude-domain data and detector

Shading: prespecified primary window. Zero-error markers at 10^{-6} are display markers, not estimates or bounds.